Monthly Reports

Chief of Police: Tom Coppotelli

- Fishing Derby was a huge success with about 70 children, great weather and a shout out to Rob Crane for his assistance, we had police officers there cooking hot dogs and the firemen were there also involved with the event. Great support from the community and we thank you.
- Caseyville had their Spring Fling and our Caseyville Officers were on hand to support the school and cook hot dogs for the children.
- As usual our police officers have been busy making arrests
- Read a letter from couple that Officer Parisi had an encounter with and thanked him for getting their lives together with their infant.
- Will be looking to hire a part-time officer to help Compliance Officer Gary Crowe with the ordinance citations.

Adjournment

- There was no additional business to bring before the Board. A motion was made by Brenda Williams, seconded John Buckley, to adjourn the meeting. No additions or corrections.
